Summary: On July 28, 2010, officers responded to 2510 El Camino Real, CVS, to investigate an armed robbery. The reporting party described the suspect as a male adult with a beard and mustache wearing sunglasses, suit jacket, and grey pants. The suspect handed the pharmacist a demand note and displayed a handgun in his waistband. Officer Boyce and Corporal Lawton responded and set a perimeter. Officer Boyce saw a vehicle leaving the parking lot of 2510 El Camino Real. Officers followed the vehicle a 1992 Honda and saw that the passenger matched the description of the suspect. The officers conducted a high-risk felony stop on the vehicle in the parking lot of Kragen Auto Parts in Oceanside on Plaza Drive.

The officers transported the reporting parties to the Kragen Auto Parts parking lot and they positively identified suspect #1, ERIC GASKELL, as the suspect who displayed the handgun. The officers also arrested the driver of the vehicle suspect #2, PETER ZASTOKE/CLEARY.

The officers searched the suspects' vehicle and recovered the handgun and a demand note. GASKELL and ZATOKE/CLEARY were booked into the Vista Detention Facility for conspiracy and attempted armed robbery. CVS did not have a loss.
